

OFFICIAL

80-10

Attachment 1.2-A — Organization & Function of State Agency

State of Connecticut

ST CONN SA Approved 3/21/80 HU Approved 6/23/80
Effective 3/21/80

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT
Connecticut State Department of Income Maintenance

OFFICIAL

80-10

The Connecticut State Department of Income Maintenance provides financial support, medical assistance and work training to families, dependent children under 18, or 21 if in school including homeless and neglected children, as well as the aged, blind and permanently and totally disabled in accordance with the provisions of Title I (OAA), IVA (AFDC), and B (CW), X (AB), XIV (APTD) and XIX (Medical Assistance) of the Social Security Act and Chapter 299: Sec. 17-1 through Sec. 17-21d; Chapter 301: Sec. 17-32 through 17-52, 17-81a through 17-81h; Chapter 302: Sec. 17-82 through Sec. 17-135 of the Connecticut General Statutes. In addition, the Department of Income Maintenance is the state agency designated to administer the federal aid programs, the Food Stamp Program, the Cuban Refugee Program and Aid to Repatriates.

Organizational Structure

The Connecticut State Department of Income Maintenance, under the direction and authority of the Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioner, is comprised on a state administrative level of the following divisions:

- Division of Data Processing
- Division of Program Planning and Staff Development
- Division of Health Services
- Division of Fiscal and Administrative Services
- Division of Eligibility

The Department also maintains, on a geographic basis, area field offices for administering the programs prescribed by Federal and State Statutes on a local level.

The Public Information Section, under the direct authority of the Commissioner, is responsible for providing a comprehensive program for obtaining and disseminating all information relating to the Department of Income Maintenance. The Data Processing Division is responsible for all electronic data processing functions.

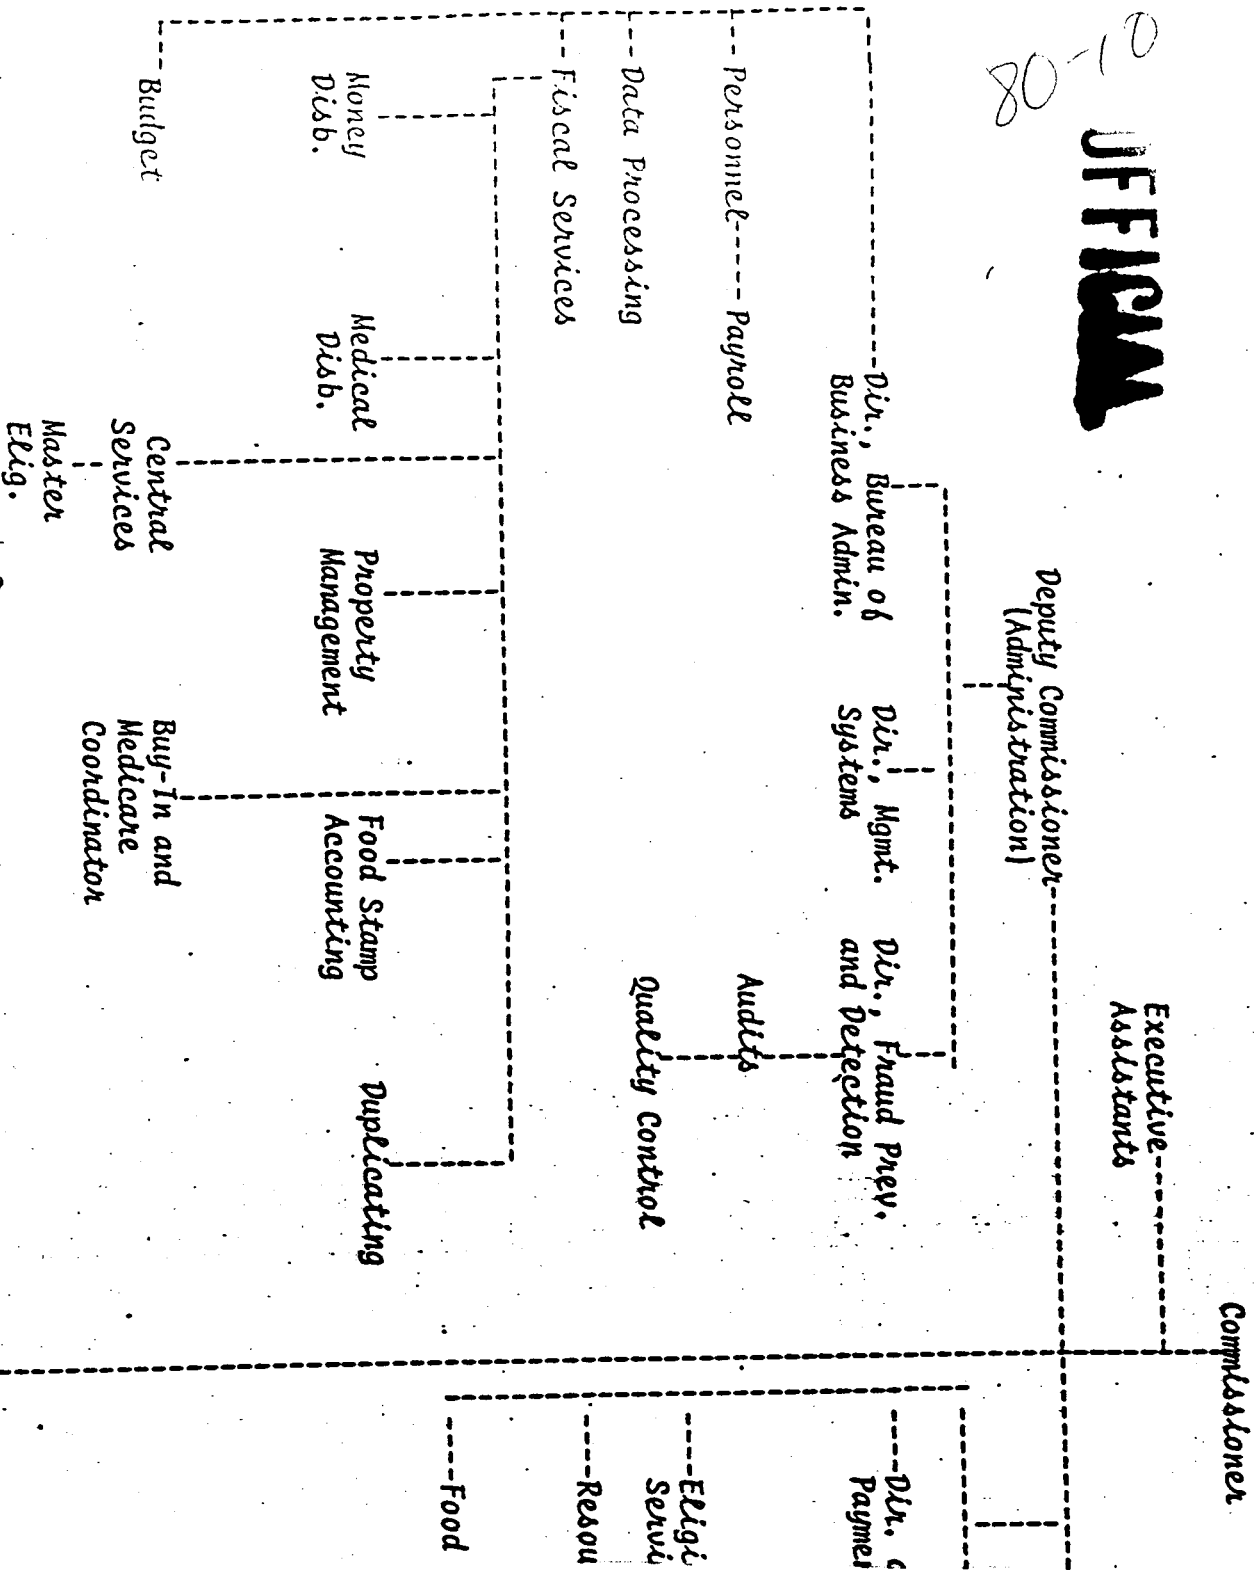

The Health Services Division has accountability for administering Title XIX and for consultation with field workers delivering medical services. Overall direction of the Service Program at the local level rests with the District Directors.

3/21/80 6/23/80
H1 APPROVED

DEPARTMENT OF INCOME MAINTENANCE

Organizational Chart

01-08
OFFICIAL

ST. CORN SA Agreement 3/21/80
Effective 3/21/80
SA Agreement 6/23/80

DISTRICT OFFICES